Item 2.02 Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On February 21, 2018, RPX Corporation issued a press release announcing its financial results for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2017. The full text of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

This information shall not be deemed “filed” for purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”), or incorporated by reference in any filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in such a filing.

Item 2.06 Material Impairment.

On February 21, 2018, RPX Corporation concluded that non-cash impairment losses of $94.1 million will be recorded in the financial information of the three months and fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, $89.0 million of which relates to goodwill in its discovery services segment and the remaining impairment is associated with its cost method investments in its patent risk management segment. RPX Corporation's conclusion on goodwill impairment was made in connection with its annual impairment testing of goodwill for its discovery services business which resulted in the carrying values exceeding the fair values primarily due to (1) decreased expected future cash flows from pricing pressures and competition in the discovery services marketplace as well as significant fluctuations due to the project-based nature of these cash flows, and (2) a decrease in estimated peer company values. No cash expenditures are anticipated as a result of the impairment losses.

RPX Announces Fourth Quarter and Fiscal 2017 Financial Results

Company Announces it is Exploring Strategic Alternatives

SAN FRANCISCO – February 21, 2018 – RPX Corporation (together with its subsidiaries, “RPX”, “the Company”) (NASDAQ: RPXC), the leading provider of patent risk and discovery management solutions, today announced its financial results for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2017.

Highlights

- Results were in-line or exceeded guidance ranges for Q4 and FY 2017.
- Cash provided by operating activities in 2017 was $181.5 million.
- Generated $73.8 million of free cash flow in 2017; guiding to $65-85 million of free cash flow in 2018.
- Total revenue for 2017 was $330.5 million, compared to $333.1 million for 2016.
- Recorded non-cash charge of $94.1 million in Q4, primarily related to impairment losses on discovery services goodwill.

“Our solid results in 2017 reflect RPX’s continued success in bringing efficiency and transparency to the patent market, including our unique ability to execute licensing transactions that reduce risk and cost for our network,” said Martin Roberts, CEO of RPX Corp. “As the patent market continues to evolve, RPX is changing along with it to ensure we remain a key advisor to our clients on their patent strategy. As such, we continue to pursue new initiatives and services that reduce the amount clients and prospects spend on all aspects of their patent portfolio, including licensing, development and administration.”

Summary Results

Revenue for the fourth quarter of 2017 and 2016 was $81.8 million. Revenue for 2017 was $330.5 million, compared to $333.1 million for 2016.

GAAP net loss for the fourth quarter of 2017 was $95.7 million or $1.93 per diluted share, compared to net income of $1.7 million or $0.03 per diluted share in the fourth quarter of 2016. GAAP net loss for 2017 was $79.1 million or $1.61 per diluted share, compared to net income of $18.2 million or $0.36 per diluted share for 2016. In the fourth quarter of 2017, the Company recorded non-cash impairment losses of $94.1 million relating primarily to its discovery services goodwill.

Non-GAAP net income for the fourth quarter of 2017, which excludes stock-based compensation, the amortization of acquired intangibles, fair value adjustments on deferred payment obligations, gains on extinguishment of deferred payment obligations, realized losses on exchange of short-term investments, accelerated debt issuance costs, pre-tax non-cash impairment losses, their related tax effects, and the one-time tax effect of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act relating to the revaluation of deferred taxes and repatriation toll charges, was $11.1 million or $0.22 per diluted share, compared to $6.2 million or $0.12 per diluted share in the fourth quarter of 2016. Non-GAAP net income for 2017 was $40.7 million or $0.81 per diluted share, compared to $35.7 million or $0.70 per diluted share for 2016.

As of December 31, 2017, RPX’s patent segment had more than 330 clients, consisting of patent risk management network members and insurance clients. The Company provides patent risk management services to 450 companies, including those insured under policies sold to venture funds and industry trade associations.

The Company’s net cash provided by operating activities for the year ended December 31, 2017 was $181.5 million. The Company generated free cash flow of $73.8 million during 2017, which it defines as cash flow from operating activities less capital expenditures such as property and equipment and patent assets. Non-GAAP adjusted EBITDA less net patent spend was $1.3 million for the fourth quarter of 2017 and $113.4 million for 2017.

Net patent acquisition spend during the fourth quarter totaled $51.4 million, and included 16 new patent acquisitions. Net patent acquisition spend during the year totaled $106.0 million. Gross patent spend during the year, the Company's preferred measure of deal making activity, totaled $179.9 million.

As of December 31, 2017, RPX had cash, cash equivalents, and short-term investments of $157.2 million.

Strategic Alternatives Process

Separately, the Company announced that its Board of Directors is conducting a process to explore and evaluate strategic alternatives to maximize shareholder value. The Board has not made any decisions related to any strategic alternatives at this time. No assurances can be made with regard to the timeline for completion of the strategic review, or whether the review will result in any particular outcome. The Company undertakes no obligation to make further comments on developments related to this review except upon entry into a definitive transaction agreement or as otherwise required by law.

"Over the past year, the Company has focused on streamlining its cost structure and putting into place a management structure that maximizes the performance of the existing business, and also has started to develop new initiatives that leverage the Company's existing competencies to expand RPX's footprint in the patent space. With this progress, we believe now is an appropriate time to explore various alternatives available to the Company to maximize value for its shareholders on the basis of its current operations and future prospects," said Shelby Bonnie, Chairman of the Board.

Quarterly Dividend

The Company also announced that its quarterly cash dividend of $0.05 per share of common stock will be payable on March 28, 2018 to stockholders of record on March 14, 2018.

New Revenue Standard

In May 2014, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued a new standard related to revenue recognition, Accounting Standards Codification ("ASC") 606, Revenue from Contracts with Customers ("ASC 606"), which became effective for RPX on January 1, 2018. Through December 31, 2017, the Company recognized revenue in accordance with ASC 605, Revenue Recognition ("ASC 605") and related authoritative guidance. The Company adopted ASC 606 using the full retrospective method which requires restatement of each prior reporting period presented.

The standard has a material effect on the Company's financial statements due to the identification of multiple performance obligations from its patent risk management membership subscription and the timing of recognition for these separable performance obligations. Specifically, the Company recognizes separate performance obligations under ASC 606 for certain discrete patent assets transferred to its membership clients as well as for access to the Company's patent portfolio which clients obtain when becoming a member or renewing membership. The revenue from these additional performance obligations is recognized at a point in time, whereas formerly the Company generally recognized its patent risk management subscription fees ratably on a gross basis over the term of the customer contract. The adoption of ASC 606 may increase the variability of the revenue recognized from the Company's patent risk management services from period to period.

Under ASC 606, the Company determines whether revenue should be treated on a gross basis or net basis which may result in revenue that was formerly treated on a gross basis to be treated on a net basis against its patent assets under ASC 606 due to the additional separable performance obligations. The Company expects the adoption of ASC 606 to decrease the revenue it recognizes and the patent assets it capitalizes for this reason.

ASC 606 does not have a material effect on the Company's discovery services business or patent risk management insurance offering.

A webcast in which management reviews a slide deck that discusses the accounting changes in detail will be posted and available today following the earnings call on the "Investor Relations" section of the company's website at www.rpxcorp.com.

Below are the Company's consolidated statements of operations and reconciliation of net income (loss) to non-GAAP adjusted EBITDA less net patent spend for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 under ASC 605 showing the adjustments for restatement of each year to ASC 606. These adjustments for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 are preliminary estimates and subject to change. These adjustments do not have an impact on the items excluded for non-GAAP presentation except the one-time tax effects of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act relating to the revaluation of deferred taxes which increases the Company's provision for income taxes for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2017 by approximately $3.6 million. The Company believes that showing its historical financial results under ASC 605 and ASC 606 will provide additional transparency and that providing this additional disclosure in the short term will help investors and analysts understand the impact of the change in revenue recognition standards, especially given the material difference expected in the timing of revenue recognition for its patent risk management services as mentioned above. The presentation under ASC 605 is not a substitute for the new revenue recognition standard, ASC 606, which was effective for the Company as of January 1, 2018.

Business Outlook

This outlook reflects the Company's current and preliminary view and may be subject to change. Please see the paragraph regarding "Forward-Looking Statements" at the end of this news release.

The Company provided the following business outlook for the full year 2018 under ASC 606, as well as under ASC 605 for illustrative purposes. The Company has provided this outlook under both ASC 606 and ASC 605 in order to provide additional transparency. The Company believes that providing this additional disclosure in the short term will help its investors and analysts understand the impact of the change in revenue recognition standards, especially given the material difference expected in the timing of revenue recognition for its patent risk management services as mentioned above. The presentation under ASC 605 is not a substitute for the new revenue recognition standard, ASC 606, which was effective for the Company as of January 1, 2018.

Gross patent spend	> $150 million	> $150 million
Effective tax rate (non-GAAP)	32%	29%
Weighted-average diluted shares outstanding	51 million	51 million

The Company provided the following supplemental information regarding amortization expense for the full year 2018 under ASC 606, as well as under ASC 605 for illustrative purposes:

	ASC 606	ASC 605 <sup>[3]</sup>
Amortization of patent assets acquired through December 31, 2017	$87 million	$103 million
Amortization of patent assets to be acquired during 2018	$18 - $22 million	$21 - $25 million
Total amortization of patent assets	$105 - $109 million	$124 - $128 million
Amortization of acquired intangible assets<sup>[2]</sup>	$8 - $9 million	$8 - $9 million

<sup>[2]</sup> RPX excludes amortization expense related to intangible assets (other than patents) acquired in conjunction with the acquisition of businesses from its non-GAAP financial measures.

<sup>[3]</sup> RPX recognized revenue in accordance with ASC 605 during fiscal years 2017 and prior. Starting January 1, 2018, RPX adopted and began recognizing revenue in accordance with ASC 606. RPX is providing its full year 2018 forward-looking business outlook using ASC 605 in addition to its forward-looking business outlook using ASC 606 on a one-time basis for illustrative purposes. Future business outlooks will be provided using ASC 606.

The above outlook is forward-looking. Actual results may differ materially. The Company is not able, at this time, to provide a forward-looking reconciliation to GAAP outlook for the non-GAAP financial metric outlook it has provided above for 2018 because of the difficulty of estimating certain items that are excluded from the non-GAAP financial metrics, including those items listed in "Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information" below, the effect of which may be significant. Please refer to the information under the caption "Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information" below.

About RPX

RPX Corporation (NASDAQ: RPXC) is the leading provider of patent risk management and discovery management solutions. Since its founding in 2008, RPX has introduced efficiency to the patent market by providing a rational alternative to litigation. The San Francisco-based company's pioneering approach combines principal capital, deep patent expertise, and client contributions to generate enhanced patent buying power. By acquiring patents and patent rights, RPX helps to mitigate and manage patent risk for its growing client network.

As of December 31, 2017, RPX had invested $2.4 billion to acquire more than 23,000 US and international patent assets and rights on behalf of more than 330 clients in eight key sectors: automotive, consumer electronics and PCs, E-commerce and software, financial services, media content and distribution, mobile communications and devices, networking, and semiconductors.

RPX subsidiary Inventus is a leading international discovery management provider focused on reducing the costs and risks associated with the discovery process through the effective use of technology solutions. Inventus has been providing litigation support services to corporate legal departments, law firms and government agencies since 1991.

Use of Non-GAAP Financial Information

This news release dated February 21, 2018 contains non-GAAP financial measures. Tables are provided in this news release that reconcile the historical non-GAAP financial measures to the most directly comparable financial measures prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP). These non-GAAP financial measures include non-GAAP cost of revenue, non-GAAP selling, general and administrative expenses, non-GAAP other income (expense), net, non-GAAP provision for income taxes, non-GAAP net income, non-GAAP adjusted EBITDA, non-GAAP net income per share, non-GAAP adjusted EBITDA less net patent spend, and free cash flow.

To supplement the Company's condensed consolidated financial statements presented on a GAAP basis, management believes that these non-GAAP measures provide useful information about the Company's core operating results and thus are appropriate to enhance the overall understanding of the Company's past financial performance and its prospects for the future. Management is excluding from some or all of its non-GAAP operating results (1) stock-based compensation expenses (inclusive of related employer payroll taxes), (2) the amortization of acquired intangible assets (other than patents), (3) fair value adjustments on deferred payment obligations, (4) gains on extinguishment of deferred payment obligations, (5) realized losses on exchange of short-term investments, (6) acceleration of debt issuance costs from the early repayment of term debt, (7) non-cash impairment losses, (8) the related tax effects of these exclusions, and (9) the one-time tax effects of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act.

Management uses these non-GAAP measures to evaluate the Company's financial results and trends, allocate internal resources, prepare and approve our annual budget, develop short- and long-term operating plans, assess the health of our business and determine company-wide incentive compensation. Management believes these non-GAAP measures may prove useful to investors who wish to consider the impact of certain items when comparing the Company's financial performance with that of other companies. The adjustments to the Company's GAAP results are made with the intent of providing both management and investors a more complete understanding of the Company's underlying operational results, trends and performance.

There are limitations in using non-GAAP financial measures because non-GAAP financial measures are not prepared in accordance with GAAP and may be different from non-GAAP financial measures used by other companies. The non-GAAP financial measures are limited in value because they exclude certain items that may have a material impact on our reported financial results. In addition, they are subject to inherent limitations as they reflect the exercise of judgment by management about which items are adjusted to calculate our non-GAAP financial measures. Management compensates for these limitations by analyzing current and future results on a GAAP basis as well as a non-GAAP basis and also by providing GAAP measures in our public disclosures.

The presentation of additional information should not be considered in isolation or as a substitute for or superior to financial results determined in accordance with GAAP. Investors are encouraged to review the reconciliation of these non-GAAP measures to their most directly comparable GAAP financial measure and not to rely on any single financial measure to evaluate our business.

Forward-Looking Statements

This news release and its attachments contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. These forward-looking statements include the statements by management, statements regarding RPX's future financial performance as well as any statements regarding the Company's strategic and operational plans, including regarding the process to explore and evaluate strategic alternatives to maximize shareholder value. The Company's actual results may differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements. Factors that may contribute to such differences include, among others, the success of the Company's new initiatives, changes in our subscription fee rates, changes in the accounting treatment associated with how we recognize revenue under subscription agreements, the Company's ability to attract new clients and retain existing clients with respect to our patent risk management and discovery services, and factors related to the Company's exploration of strategic alternatives. No assurances can be made with regard to the timeline for completion of the strategic review, or whether the review will result in any transaction. Forward-looking statements are often identified by the use of words such as, but not limited to, "anticipate," "believe," "can," "continue," "could," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "plan," "project," "seek," "should," "target," "will," "would," and similar expressions or variations intended to identify forward-looking statements. More information about potential factors that could affect the Company's business and financial results is contained in the Company's most recent annual report on Form 10-K, its quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, and the Company's other filings with the SEC. The Company does not intend, and undertakes no duty, to update any forward-looking statements to reflect future events or circumstances.

<sup>[3]</sup> RPX excludes fair value adjustments and gains on extinguishment related to its deferred payment obligations, realized losses on exchanges of short-term investments, and acceleration of debt issuance costs from the early repayment of term debt from its non-GAAP financial measures.

<sup>[6]</sup> RPX calculates non-GAAP adjusted EBITDA as GAAP earnings before other income or expenses, net, provision for income taxes, depreciation, amortization, non-cash impairment losses, and stock-based compensation expenses (inclusive of related employer payroll taxes).

<sup>[7]</sup> Subscription revenue is comprised of revenue generated from membership subscription services, premiums earned, net of ceding commissions, from insurance policies, and management fees related to the Company's insurance business.

<sup>[8]</sup> RPX excludes one-time impacts of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act from its non-GAAP financial measures, specifically as it relates to the revaluation of deferred taxes and repatriation toll charges.

<sup>[9]</sup> Free cash flow is a non-GAAP financial measure which the Company defines as cash flow from operating activities less capital expenditures such as property and equipment and patent assets.

<sup>[10]</sup> The Company is providing annual adjustments from ASC 605 to ASC 606 for additional transparency. These adjustments for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016 are preliminary estimates and subject to change. These adjustments do not have an impact on the items excluded for non-GAAP presentation except the one-time tax effects of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act relating to the revaluation of deferred taxes for the fourth quarter and year ended December 31, 2017 which increases the Company's provision for income taxes by $3.6 million.

<sup>[11]</sup> The Company excludes the anti-dilutive effects of stock options and restricted stock units using the treasury-stock method of 0.7 million shares from its computation of net loss per share for the three months and year ended December 31, 2017. However, these are included when calculating non-GAAP net income per share as the effect is dilutive in these periods.
